Limits of privacy when treating persons under the age of 18

All references to parents include legal guardian in the absence of parent.

- The provider maintains a record that contains dates of evaluation, goals of evaluation, diagnostic impressions, and recommendations.
- The parents of a client who is younger than the age of 18 have the right to read their child's/adolescent's record, which includes all information generated from Black Hills Psychology.
- The provider will inform parents if he/she assessed the child/adolescent to be in immediate danger or to be a danger to someone else.
- The provider will also communicate to the parent a summary of the evaluation as needed or as requested.
- The provider requests that parents otherwise respect their child's/adolescent's privacy regarding the content of the evaluation and treatment. A provider's evaluation may be more beneficial when parents do not ask to read the evaluation or ask the provider to reveal the content of the evaluation.
- The provider can refuse to give information to the parents about their child/adolescent if the provider predicts that disclosing such information may be harmful to the child/adolescent.
